About CPNA

The Canadian Practical Nurses Association (CPNA), incorporated in 1975, is the national professional association representing provincial/territorial practical nurse organizations and individual practical nurses from across Canada. CPNA is dedicated to promoting safe, competent, holistic nursing care.

CPNA strives for superior quality in nursing care to clients and their families, by promoting excellence in nursing practice through education and research. The Association further promotes the enhancement of the practical nurse profession by providing leadership in the development, co-ordination and promotion of professional initiatives, including the development of national practical nurse standards.

Benefits of Membership:

- Attend CPNA annual meetings and conference at reduced (member) rates
- Access to CPNA's experienced Board
- Receive annual Folio of Reports with current information about the profession
- Up to date information promoting practical nursing excellence

CPNA Mission:
To influence change in the health care system and to promote excellence in practical nursing

- Linkages to PN colleagues from coast

CPNA participates in

- The national Health Action Lobby
- The Home Care Sector Study Steering Committee
- The National Nursing Sector Study Management and Steering Committee
- The CCHSA National Health Organization forum
